...Preserving Folk Traditions

Vol 7, No 3; March, 1993

Coming up at the Folk Club!

As you read this newsletter you will be watching Tommy Sands - if, of course, you were fortunate enough to have read the previous newsletters and come to the Folk Club tonight, March 2nd.

The above is a bit whimsical since most of the readers will not have received this newsletter in the mail prior to the Sands concert, but anyway, it is your editor's way of letting all of you folk music fans out there know that Ray Kaminsky, our bookings guru, has been hard at work rounding up performers of note for your enjoyment in the coming months. Hats off to Ray for all the work he has done the past couple of years in arranging performances by a wide-ranging selection of artists from all around the world.

Over the coming months we will be having some more outstanding music through our special guests. We began 1993 with Steve Key who played to an appreciative audience in January. Tommy Sands from Ireland makes his second Folk Club appearance with this month's concert and we are certainly honored to have him back.

In April we will feature Bernice Lewis on the 13th. Her music is outstanding and you will want to get that one down on your calendar!

May 18th will be the eighth anniversary of the Folk Club. We haven't booked a special performer for May, but who knows what gem Ray might find and be unable to resist bringing to you.

June 22 will bring Susan Graham White as a solo act. She has been here before as one-half of Hazelwood, we loved her then and we will love her now.

July 20th, you folkies at the very top edge of the YUPPIE/Baby Boom crowd will surely want to come and hear Oscar Brand (of Bawdy Songs and Backroom Ballads fame).

August (date not yet set) will bring Jem Moore and Ariane Lydon. Also in August we will celebrate the 6th anniversary at the Tortilla Factory (you know, more cake from Mom's.)

September 21st we will welcome back Debi Smith (of the Smith Sisters in earlier visits) along with Al Pettiway. October is still open and in November we will bring Danny Doyle to the Folk Club. December 21st will be the Folk Club Christmas Party.

More details will be follow on these performances, but 1993 looks to be another great year at the folk club for special guest performers.

To become one of these "showcase" specials all you have to do is 1) be a member of the Folk Club, 2) fill out a lottery slip by the last Tuesday of the month, 3) win the drawing and 4) practice, practice practice!
