of Reston-Herndon

...Preserving Folk Traditions

Vol 7, No 7; July, 1993

WHAT HAPPENED JUNE 19?

1. The temperature hit a record 96 degrees!
2. Sixteen Folk Club members braved the heat (and humidity) to perform at the opening of the North Hills Park pool, pavilion and tennis courts -- the last pool that will be built in Reston.

The line-up included Dave Ross, Richard Flinchbaugh, the new duo "Tinderwood" (Barbara Roszko and Bill Roland), Liza Gelderloos, Bill Davis (who also lugged the sound equipment around and operated the sound board), Gary Hutzell, Deirdre Murphy (backed up by Brian Gilmartin and Eric Forthman), the new group "Better Than They Sound" (Eric Forthman, Brian Gilmartin, T.M. Hanna and Blair Shepard), Brendan Callahan accompanied by Alice Markham, Joe Kolankiewicz and John Cherry.

The mikes were set up just under the pavilion (to escape the sun) at the south entrance to the park where shuttle buses from Town Center dropped off their passengers to enjoy "Carnival Street" - the festive theme for the day.

Other Folk Club members and friends who dropped by to enjoy the entertainment were Lynn Jordan (coordinator), Patti Callahan, Diane Hanna, Ray Hillman, Dan Groves, Dave Hurd, and Nina Gilmartin along with many parents, children and siblings of the performers.

Many people stopped by to listen, took copies of the newsletter and looked through the pictures from the Memorial Day campout.

FOLK CLUB FEATURED IN TIMES-MIRROR

If you were at the 8th anniversary party in May, you probably noticed the photographer who was capturing every moment on film (not Dave Hurd -- he was on the camcorder). We were delighted to see in the June 23 edition of the Times-Mirror Weekender Section a full-page cover photo of Layne and Don Twist and inside picture of Dave Ross with a story about The Folk Club. Many thanks to Jody Hill, Darcy Nair and all the folks at the Times-Mirror for the great publicity!

One of America's long-standing folksingers comes to the Folk Club in the person of Oscar Brand. Since his beginnings on radio with the "Folksing Festival" in December 1945 and his more than 45 years of continuous hosting of that program, Oscar Brand has provided three generations of listeners with folk music as we all like to hear it. The list of folksingers he has featured on his program includes everyone you ever wanted in a folksinging venue beginning with Pete Seeger, his first guest. Included are (to list a few); Woody and Arlo Guthrie, Joan Baez, Harry Belafonte, Judy Collins, Bill Monroe, Jean Ritchie, Harry Chapin, Josh White, Tom Paxton, Phil Ochs, John Denver and B.B. King.

In his own right he is a performer, songwriter, humorist and artist of an extensive history of recording, lectures and performances all over the world. Hold on to your hats and get your tickets early for this outstanding evening at the Folk Club.
