Proudly Presents ...

November 23, 1993
at the Tortilla Factory

Dublin born Danny Doyle has been favoring folk audiences in Europe and the U.S. for nearly 30 years with renditions of Ireland's music and with his own creations. Now in the Washington area he adds to the Folk Club's long-standing tradition of bringing you the music of Ireland and the British Isles.

Danny has performed throughout Europe, Canada and the U.S. as a solo, in group and in dance bands. His voice and style have won him recognition and awards throughout his career. He has been called Ireland's "Mr. Music" and has been featured on stage, radio and TV, hosting his own shows in Dublin.

He has numerous recordings to his name, "Raised on Songs and Stories", "The Highwayman", "Twenty Years a-Growing", "Dublin Me Darlin'" and three collections are among his productions.

"If Danny Doyle's reception by the critics worldwide has been unusually warm, it is perhaps well to remember that he has for over two decades been regarded the foremost balladeer of a country which has no shortage of folksingers."
