Maryland native TONY DENIKOS is one of the Mid-Atlantic region's contemporary songwriting treasures. A familiar face at local clubs, festivals & coffeehouses showcasing his foot-stomping backbeats, engaging melodies and "tastier than Texas BBQ" guitar work, he's won the hearts of those who appreciate great songwriting delivered with an honest and authentic voice.

Tony describes his music as modern Americana with deep roots and has independently released four albums and appeared on two compilations. His song "Tip of My Tongue" won grand prize in the 2012 Mid-Atlantic Songwriting Contest.

KIPYN MARTIN is an emerging Mid-Atlantic singer/songwriter whose roots sink into the banks of the Shenandoah River. Her voice is gathering a reputation in the region, hailed by listeners as "an instrument of unrefined purity" (Tony S. - Leicester Bangs). She plays festival stages in Virginia & Maryland, and delights audiences at vineyards, coffeehouses and house concerts throughout the Shenandoah Valley, I-95 corridor and beyond.

Kipyn's song "Nightbird" earned a gold medal, as well as the Director's Choice Award in the recent 2013 Mid-Atlantic Songwriting Contest.
